

Mobile crossover

The mobile crossing is designed for use on existing two-track tram lines with a covered superstructure on straight runs without abrupt gradient changes. It is also used as a temporary and mobile reversing bay for bidirectional cars. Two-way traffic can be temporarily conveyed on a single shared track by using a right mobile crossing and a left one at the same time. The mobile crossing is used during construction works on tram lines.

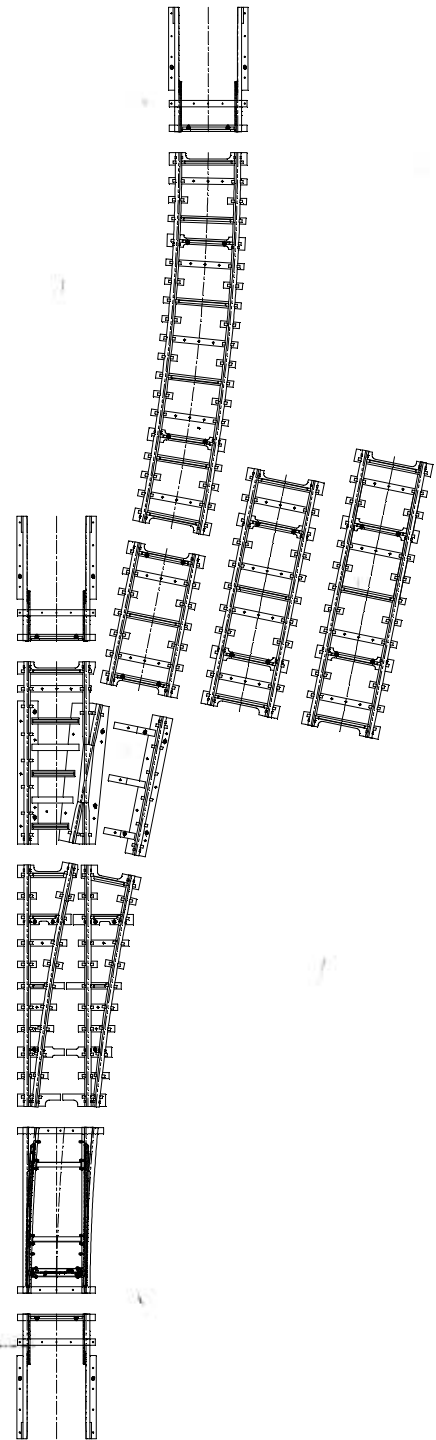

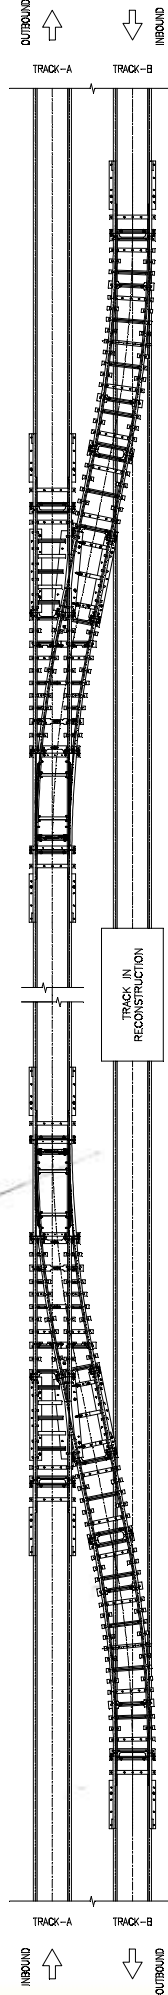

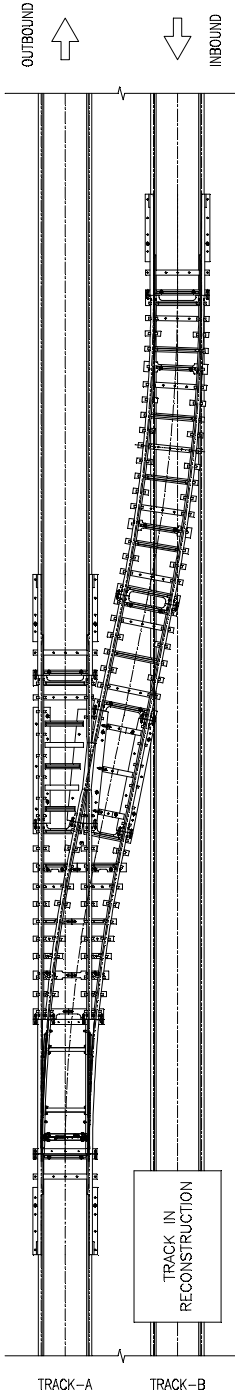

CERTIFICATE NO. 32557

CERTIFICATE NO. 33026

... all for the modern tramway track

Temporary and mobile reversing bay

The particular parts of the mobile crossover with different straight parts

Single shared track by using a right mobile crossing and a left one at the same time